Manila, Philippines — October 17, 2025 — The Forbes 5-star integrated resort Okada Manila unveils “TIMELESS,” its first premier events showcase for milestone celebrations. Taking place on November 7 at the Grand Ballroom, this landmark event marks the beginning of a tradition that celebrates creativity, artistry, and the signature hospitality that continue to define Okada Manila as the country’s premier destination for bespoke celebrations.

A Grand Stage for Life’s Defining Moments

The program highlights four celebration formats—weddings, debuts, golden anniversaries, and Tinghun—woven into a continuous, visually rich showcase. Each segment features couture runway moments, interpretive performances, and thematic transformations of the Grand Ballroom.

Celebrated designer Vee Tan opens the show with her Tinghun collection, a tribute to romance and cultural tradition presented with the lush styling of Michael Ruiz and Tiger Lim. For the Golden Anniversary segment, Ryan Ablaza Uson unveils a collection that reflects enduring elegance and craftsmanship, complemented by the refined artistry of stylists Dave Sandoval and MC Pascual. Rian Fernandez follows with his Debut collection, an ethereal ode to youth and self-discovery, set amidst the floral dreamscape of Teddy Manuel and Blooms by Allen & JP. Finally, Banggo Niu closes the evening with his modern interpretation of bridal couture, enhanced by the signature sophistication of Gideon Hermosa and Kathy Sy-King.

“TIMELESS is very close to our hearts because it reflects what Okada Manila stands for which is creating moments that people will always remember,” said Cielo Reboredo, Vice President for Sales and Marketing. “It’s a celebration of the stories, partnerships, and milestones that come to life within our halls, and the people who make every occasion truly meaningful.”
