Okada Manila Named Best Hotel – Manila at the 35th Annual TTG Travel Awards 2026

Travel industry vote recognizes the service, facilities and range of experiences that give guests more from every stay.

MANILA, PHILIPPINES — September 28, 2026 — Okada Manila, the Philippines' largest Forbes 5-Star integrated resort, has been named Best Hotel – Manila at the 35th Annual TTG Travel Awards 2026. The recognition highlights the resort's distinctive combination of hospitality, facilities and experiences designed to give guests more ways to make the most of their stay.

The awards are voted on by travel consultants, tour operators and destination management companies across Asia Pacific. With no preset list of nominees, eligible travel professionals choose the hotel they believe best meets the award criteria, including services and facilities, range of value-added benefits, and the professionalism of the sales and marketing team in innovative ideas and servicing.

For guests, the recognition reinforces what defines a stay at Okada Manila: the room is only the beginning. Across its 30-hectare property, the resort brings together 1,001 rooms, suites and villas with more than 40 dining options, wellness, shopping, family activities, entertainment and event venues.

"Being named Best Hotel – Manila is especially meaningful because it reflects the complete experience we create for our guests," said Nobuki Sato, President and Chief Operating Officer of Okada Manila. "Whether guests come to unwind, celebrate, explore new flavors or enjoy time with family, we want every part of their stay to feel considered and memorable. This recognition belongs to our team members, whose dedication brings that experience to life every day."

More to Discover in One Destination

Guests can savor a range of cuisines, including MICHELIN Selected Ginza Nagaoka; recharge at The Retreat Spa; and explore The Promenade, The Fountain, The Garden and the resort's pools. Thrillscape and Okada Kids Club add more ways for families to enjoy their time, while year-round entertainment and flexible event venues make the resort a setting for everything from a weekend escape to a major celebration.

Together, these experiences give guests more than a place to stay. They make it easier to dine, relax, explore, celebrate and enjoy more of the resort within one destination.

Shaped by Japanese attention to quality and detail and genuine Filipino warmth, Okada Manila brings these experiences together for leisure travelers, families and business guests alike.

The Best Hotel – Manila recognition reinforces Okada Manila's commitment to giving guests more reasons to stay, discover and return—all within one destination. For more information and reservations, visit www.okadamanila.com.
